

Mayor's Youth Council City of Los Angeles 2018-2019 Application Year

Passionate about giving back to your community? Love to discuss current events? Interested in meeting other young people dedicated to public service? Join the Mayor's Youth Council!

What is the Mayor's Youth Council?

- A one-year program for Los Angeles high school students
- The Youth Council works to empower its members to advocate for causes relevant to the youth of Los Angeles
- The Youth Council gives the next generation of leaders a voice in City Hall.

Who will be on the Mayor's Youth Council?

- Student leaders currently enrolled in high school from diverse educational backgrounds representing all 15 Los Angeles City Council districts.
- The Youth Council will be divided into cohorts based on their respective areas, and the monthly meetings facilitated by the respective Area Representative from the Mayor's Office of Public Engagement.

What will happen during Mayor's Youth Council meetings?

- Meetings will discuss various themes of public service such as, Government 101, Civic Leadership, Community Organizing, Civic Engagement, Public Speaking & more!
- Guest speakers from the local governmental, non-profit, corporate and labor sectors will be invited to address the Youth Council.
- Youth Council members will have the opportunity to volunteer at community events and receive professional development training.

Please visit www.lamayor.org/myc to complete the electronic application and recommendation form.

Should you have any questions, please contact: Jaqueline Serrano or Tanaz Golshan (Mayor's Office of Public Engagement) at mayor.youthcouncil@lacity.org.

Eric
Garcetti
@MayorOfLA

Application Deadline: September 21, 2018